VOLUME LXVI.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 9, 1865.

NUMBER 239

PUBLISHED (DAILY) BY
EDGAR SNOWDEN, SR.
OFFICE—GAZETTE BUILDING, Prince
street, near Fairfax.
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION—Sixty cents per month; or Six dollars PER ANNUM, payable in advance.

THE PNEUMATIC DISPATCH RAILWAY.— Recently two trucks containing a quantity of goods were driven through the Pneumatic Dispatch tubular line of railway from the central station in Holborn to the terminus on the premises of the London and Northwestern railway, near Euston Square. In their transit through the tube the train passed beneath the thoroughfare of Holborn, New Orford street, Tottenham Court road, the Hampstead road and Drummond street. The time occupied in running between the two stations, a distance of two miles, being about five minutes. Goods that are to be dispatched from Holborn to Euston will be taken from the street to the platform, which is on the level with the latter, lowered to the trucks lying on the traversing tables, and shifted to the tube entrance (of which there are two, one for Euston and the other for the post office,) within which the train will be placed, and then literally blown to its intended stopping place. —[London Times.]

Speaking of the exertions of the ultras in Congress, the Washington Star says:—"The issue is apparently to be made over the affairs of this District, which is proposed to be thoroughly Africanized. We are not believers that Messrs. Sumner and Wade can force their party in Congress up to the support of their projects. Yet it seems probable that they will induce a portion of it to make such a record as will inevitably sunder it in twain, and drive from it the support of the hundreds of thousands of voters whose devotion to the cause of the Union, rather than to abolitionism pure and simple, kept it in power in the late Presidential election." We are not at all sure, after what has transpired, that the majority of the people at the North, will not support Messrs. Sumner, Wade, Stevens, &c., in their most extreme measures.

The Richmond Whig and Richmond Times, both, speak in terms of commendation of the President's Message, and the latter hopes that the "cold, calm and resolute statesmanship of the President of the whole nation will eventually defeat the roaring, raging spirit of faction which has taken temporary possession of Congress."

The Atlanta (Ga.) Messenger gives the following odd notice of a deceased citizen of that place:—"He was the father of eleven sons, five of whom married five sisters. He had one hundred and eighty-nine grand children; and at his funeral, two weeks ago last Sabbath, two horses were stung to death by bees, and another came very near losing his life by the same."

The Petersburg Index is warmly advocating such a change in our present railroad system, as will secure "uninterrupted transit and uniformity of management" throughout the State and country.

Gen. E. M. Gregory, formerly Colonel of the 93rd Penn., Vols., and for a time in command of this place, is now in command of the important post of Galveston, Texas.

One of the latest swindles is one which has been successfully tried in Philadelphia. Bogus telegrams, the printed blanks of which are exact imitations of those used by the telegraph companies, are sent to persons interested in oil matters, informing them that some miserable oil company has struck a flowing well. The recipient swallows the bait, perhaps tells his friends of his good news, and the shares of the broken corporation are eagerly bought up at advanced prices.

At Jefferson, Texas, the head of the Red River navigation, there are 12,000 bales of cotton on hand, and about twenty thousand more are to come in.

The Paris correspondent of the Globe says the Spanish Ministry have decided to back out of the Chilian affair, and the Spanish admiral has been ordered to suspend operations.

Professor Agassiz has discovered 60 new species of fish in the Amazon river.

Notwithstanding the arrangements made by Governor Sharkey, of Mississippi, whereby all cases in which the rights of citizens are involved, were to be tried by the civil courts, Colonel Thomas has organized a military court at Davis Bend, for the trial of cases between white citizens and negroes.

The trustees of St. John's College, Annapolis, have elected Dr. Barnard, of Hartford, Conn., as President of that Institution.
